Band Camp
What a fantastic few days of music our bands experienced last week at Band Camp. Our students are so incredibly fortunate to have had this wonderful opportunity and by all accounts, it certainly sounds like it was an amazing few days which culminated in a fabulous musical showcase for our parents and careers. I would sincerely like to thank everyone who helped with either the organisation of the camp or over the duration of the camp. Events such as these are always a massive undertaking, but so rewarding when you see how much the children enjoy the experience. The staff of Narrabeen Sport and Recreation camp were extremely delighted with the behaviour of our students. A special thanks to Mr Hosegood, Miss Aitken, Ms Wilcher and Mr Turner who also gave up their time, staying overnight to supervise the children.

Future Pedagogies with MacICT
MVPS has been so fortunate to have been involved in The Future Pedagogies project with academics from MacICT this semester. Through this project, we have explored how educators develop, employ and evaluate pedagogies to meet the evolving needs of their school communities. The project examines the relationship between pedagogical change and evidence-based practice. As an action learning team, we have looked at issues in current research to identify pedagogy-related issues in our own school context, determined how we can create workable solutions and effect meaningful change. The project considers the nature of pedagogical change in the context of the realities contemporary schools face. At MVPS, we have focused on embedding the Design Thinking framework into an inquiry based learning model. We look forward to presenting our project to esteemed colleagues and academics at MacICT this Thursday.
Project Penguin
We are so thrilled to be involved in Project Penguin as part of the Northern Beaches Learning Alliance (NBLA) again this year. This project, which involves a number of high schools, and primary schools in our local area, has been revitalised this year under the wisdom and leadership of Mrs McCredie and has seen our year 5 students engaged in the Design Thinking framework. Over the last few weeks, we have had visits from girls from Mackellar Girls High who came along to assist our students with their projects. It has been lovely to welcome back some of our year 6 2011 students as mentors! This is a great example of schools from the NBLA working together for the benefit of enhancing our students’ learning outcomes.

MVPS Star Students
Congratulations to our dance group who were awarded a highly commended at the IRBD eisteddfod on Saturday. The eisteddfod was held at Pittwater House in Collaroy. It was our first performance and the girls were gorgeous.

Congratulations to Colton S and Leonardo P (stage 2) and Eliza N-P and Ella R (stage 3) who are Manly Village’s representatives in the local finals of the Multicultural Perspectives Public Speaking Competition to be held at Manly West PS on Tuesday 16 June. The quality of all the speeches was outstanding and I commend all of our students this year on the incredible efforts they put in to preparing and presenting their speeches.

Commemorative Service at North Head
On Friday 29 May, our four school leaders attended the 73rd Anniversary Commemoration Service at the Defence of Sydney Monument at North Head. This event marks the night in 1942 that war came to Sydney when three midget submarines from the Imperial Japanese Navy entered Sydney Harbour. Two of the submarines were detected before they attacked, but one torpedoed the HMAS Kuttabul at Garden Island that sank with the loss of 21 lives. Australia’s Prime Minister Tony Abbott led the commemorative service, which was addressed by David Johnston for the Royal Australian Navy. Our school leaders laid flowers at the monument and enjoyed the speeches, including one by Seb from Manly Selective Campus, son of Lori our lovely canteen supervisor. After the formal service, our school leaders enjoyed a lovely morning tea prepared by students from Mackellar Girls Campus. Congratulations to our students for representing our school in such a fine way.

Special Religious Education and Special Education in Ethics
An independent review of Special Religious Education and Special Education in Ethics is currently being conducted by ARTD Consultants, an independent research company who have been engaged by the NSW Department of Education and Communities. The review is not being conducted to determine whether SRE or SEE should be offered in NSW public schools. Findings from the review will inform ongoing improvement of SRE and SEE for the Department and providers. Parents and carers can have a say until 31 July 2015 via an online contributions portal, located at: http://artd.com.au/sre-see-review

Additional information about the review can be found in the Public reviews and inquiries section of the department’s website.

Nepal has experienced two devastating earthquakes in two weeks. Many relief organisations are working tirelessly to help the Nepalese people rebuild their homes and lives. School Aid/Kids Give has launched an appeal to help the children of Nepal

They have asked schools around the country to help collect even small amounts of change from their community. Some villages have only one building still standing and many orphanages are overflowing.

Donation containers are at the office counter until end of school Friday 5th June. Thank you for being a part of the big hearted MVPS community.

Kindergarten Excursion

Last Thursday, the Kindergarten students attended their first school excursion - a trip to see The Gruffalo’s Child live performance at Glen Street Theatre. The children enjoyed the bus trip to Belrose, and displayed excellent theatre manners during the performance. After the show, the children enjoyed a picnic lunch at Lionel Watts Oval, and played group games in the winter sunshine. Back at school, the children have been writing and drawing their responses to the show.

Thank you Kindergarten teachers for a lovely day.
